A CANNING FIRM FAILS

All the Tomatoes Canned This Season by Coleman & Johnson Were Lost.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov. 6.—The firm of Coleman and Johnson, which has for several years been doing a large business at Warsaw, in the Northern Neck, has made an assignment for the benefit of its creditors. The cause of the failure is attributed to the loss of most of the canned tomatoes put up by the firm this season. The tomatoes packed were not sufficiently ripened and the loss reached several thousand dollars.

Full official returns from the election in Stafford county show a majority of only four for H. G. Chesley, Republican, and present treasurer of Stafford county, against W. B. Hamby, the Democratic nominee. The fight was one of the warmest in the State, and it is said that a contest will be made.

THE LAST FAIR.
The last agricultural fair in this section, and probably in the entire State, took place this week, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, on the grounds of the Chesapeake Agricultural Society, near Kilmarnock, in the Northern Neck. There was a good turnout of the country people, and the exhibits were up to the usual average.

Mr. J. P. Stubbs of Spotsylvania county, has just completed a handsome, modern barn on his farm, and also built a fine addition to his residence.

An effort is being made to organize a teachers' institute in Richmond county, Mr. Joseph Hunter, met and awarded certificates to the successful candidates.

Rockbridge Official.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

REV. E. T. WELLFORD CALLED TO BALTIMORE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Nov. 6.—Rev. E. T. Wellford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of this city, has received a call from the Maryland Avenue Presbyterian Church, of Baltimore, one of the largest churches of the city. He is considering the call, and will give his answer in a few days. The pulp committee of the Baltimore church visited here recently and Mr. Wellford preached at the church last Sunday.

SHEEP KILLED BY DOGS.

York County Supervisors Pay the Owners for Them.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
YORKTOWN, VA., November 6.—The regular monthly session of the Board of Supervisors was convened yesterday for the presentation of three bills for the destruction of sheep by dogs. This is the first application for reimbursement out of county funds since the law went into effect in March, 1902.

The depredations of the dogs occurred in Bruton District, and all three of the bills came from there. Mr. R. D. Norment filed a claim of $52, having lost his entire flock of 25 or 30 animals; W. S. Evans, $8, and J. B. Yeakle, $3. The bills were allowed and ordered paid at the next term.

The Board of Canvassers, consisting of W. W. Bull, George E. Bryan, Hugh R. and Joseph Hunter, met and awarded certificates to the successful candidates.

WOULD COST MANY LIVES

Policeman Walk and Other Desperadoes Ready to Fight to the Death.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BRISTOL, VA., Nov. 6.—A man residing in the Cumberland Mountains, near Big Stone Gap, Va., brings the information to Bristol that ex-policeman, Grant M. Walk, who killed his fellow-policeman, Houston Childress, in Bristol last February, and who later escaped from the jail in Knoxville, is in hiding in the mountains not far from Big Stone Gap. There is a standing reward of $100 for the arrest of Walk, and it has not yet been claimed.

TO COMPLETE THE NEST EGG

John Temple Graves, William R. Hearst and Fitz Lee to Speak for Jamestown.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 6.—John Temple Graves, William Randolph Hearst and Fitz Lee will speak at the great mass-meeting to be held November 12th, in aid of the Jamestown Exposition. An effort to complete subscriptions to the million dollar nest egg of the Exposition will be made at this meeting.

Because he endorsed the "Jim Crow" car law and disapproved of Booker Washington's accepting President Roosevelt's invitation to dinner, Editor Dickerson, who is now traveling North in the interest of a colored orphanage, is to be denounced at a mass-meeting of his race.

The most remarkable feature of the affair, which is to be held under the auspices of William Thoroughgood, a colored office holder, is that Governor Montague, Mayor Riddick and Bishop Randolph will be asked to withdraw their endorsement of Dickerson as a conservative representative of the colored race. The meeting will be held Monday.

The State of Virginia will really take the prisoners, Vance McCarthy and Frank Monroe, off the hands of the Federal authorities after their trial in the United States Court on charges of collecting sailors' money in advance. It is in evidence that the men were implicated in shanghaiing, but there is no Federal statute covering the offense.

BAPTIST WOMEN.

The Woman's Missionary Union of Virginia, auxiliary to the Baptist General Association, is in session here today. Seventy-five delegates are present. They were welcomed by Mrs. S. J. Culpepper, of Portsmouth.

Miss Lottie Moon, missionary to China, made an appeal for aid in that field. Official reports were received from the following officers of the Union: Corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. Leake, Richmond; treasurer, Mrs. William Ellison, Richmond; auditor, Mrs. W. R. Jones, Barton Heights, Richmond; superintendent of bands, Mrs. G. F. Williams, Richmond. (The reports of Mrs. Ellison and Mrs. Jones were read by the secretary, those ladies not being present.)

Then Mrs. Thomas P. Bagby, of West Point, Va., addressed the meeting on "Our Aim: to Rescue the Perishing; to Deepen Our Own Spirituality." Mrs. Bagby is superintendent of "Woman's Work" in the city of West Point. At the delegates and visitors were taken on an excursion to Virginia Beach.

KING COTTON SOARS AGAIN

Another Day of Sensational Activity on the New York Market.

THE MARKET CLOSES FIRM

Persistent Support by Local Bull Interests and Coverings by Shorts Sent Prices Up.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, November 6.—There was a sensational active trade in cotton this morning, and once more prices were forced upwards at a record rate. The market opened four points down on the near months to an advance of 12 points, and soon after the opening was some 18 to 15 points net higher on excited covering by those who sold on yesterday's break, a good demand from spot people and further aggressive support from the local bull leaders. After reaching 10.65 for December, 10.80 for January, 10.83 for March, and 10.55 for May, there was heavy realizing and some pressure from Wall Street bear sources. The market eased off 4 or 5 points, although it continued very active and excited.

After declining a matter of 12 1/2 points from the best prices of the morning under liquidation and Wall Street bear pressure, encouraged by the heavy estimates for to-morrow's receipts at leading points, the market was rallied again by the persistent support of local bull interests who were inclined to lay stress upon the fact that the "lino night" for the week was less than estimated, that the exports were full and the southern markets generally steady, at unchanged prices to an advance of 1-8c. At first the buying seemed well confined to the bull leaders, but later shorts began to cover in volume and prices were advanced to a new high level for the day, with December reaching 10.92; January, 10.87; March, 10.80, and May, 10.52. The market closed firm within three or four points of the best, and the net 10 1/2 points higher. Sales were estimated at 800,000 bales.

NERVOUSNESS DISAPPEARS

After a Few Doses of This New Elixir of Life.

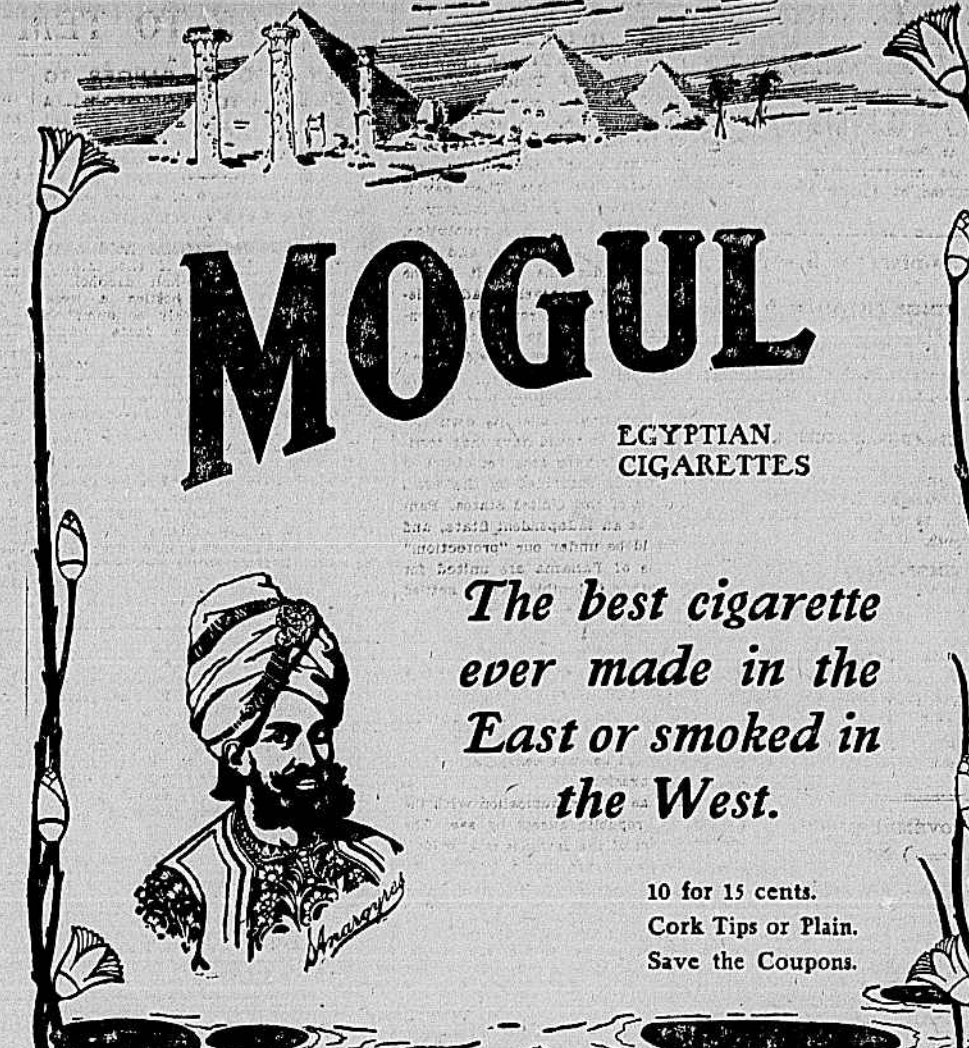

Professor Munyon says he believes there is a cure for every disease. Certainly he seems to have found one for dyspepsia and most stomach troubles. The strong endorsements received and the wonderful cures that are being made, prove beyond doubt that at last nature has revealed the secret which she has kept so long from man.

Thousands and thousands of years this Paw-Paw fruit has grown in plenty all over India and South America; generations have come and generations have gone without man discovering the value of this fruit. Thousands and thousands of lives could have been saved had man known its medicinal qualities.

Mr. Edward L. Murray, of No. 1514 East Hoffman Street, Baltimore, Md., a well known horse dealer, says:

"After suffering from nervous complications for many years and having been treated in various ways, I was unable to find relief until I was advised to use a bottle of 'Munyon's Paw-Paw,' which I am glad to say gave me instant relief. That other sufferers in my condition will profit by my learning, I am indeed glad to recommend 'Paw-Paw.' I trust, as the old saying would have it, that is, 'A word to the wise is sufficient.'"

(Signed) EDWARD L. MURRAY.
If you are nervous,

TOWN OF BOYDTON WITHOUT TAXES

The Dispensary Pays the Municipal Expenses—Fox Hunting.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOYDTON, VA., Nov. 6.—Boydton is, perhaps, the only incorporated town in Virginia where there are no taxes assessed on real or personal property in the corporation.

This condition of things is the direct result of the establishment of the town dispensary, which has been in operation for over two years.

Financially it has been a success. The profits are large and the money derived from this source is even more than is necessary for the current expenses of the town government.

It is contended by many that this mode of dealing with the liquor question is the best solution of it, as by this there is less disorder resulting from the sale of it. At the same time, I do not think there is any question, but that there is about as much liquor sold by the dispensary, as there would be by a saloon.

Cashier E. W. Overby, with several friends, have had a three days' fox hunt in his hunting preserve owned by Messrs. Warden and Costair, of Philadelphia. Mr. Overby says the club-house is a fine one, and has everything for comfort and good living.

Messrs. Warden and Costair are expected at the club-house about the middle of this month for a hunt. These gentlemen are wealthy and dispense hospitality with a lavish hand to all who call to see them. They usually remain at the club-house until the hunting season is over.

The Result in Caroline.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOWLING GREEN, VA., Nov. 6.—The canvassing board for Caroline county, which met at Bowling Green yesterday, gave out the following majorities for county officers in the canvass of the complete returns from all precincts of the county:

For Commonwealth's attorney—W. E. Ennis over A. E. Chiles, 159; for clerk—J. B. Bowers over James Swan, 159; for sheriff—Robert Gravett over T. C. Chandler, 141; for judge of the court of Delegates, and T. B. Gill, for sheriff, though unopposed, fell short about 200 votes in county from scratching.

The work of the canvassing board had been delayed by failure of the judges and clerks of election at Baltz precinct to sign up the poll books. The fight in the county centered on the Commonwealth's attorneyship, and the returns are a complete victory for the Democratic ticket. Ennis having carried eleven out of the thirteen precincts of the county over Chandler, who received almost the solid colored support. Not a single Republican was elected.

Turner-Dickinson.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HOLLINS, VA., Nov. 6.—To-day at noon, at the residence of the bride, Dr. Jesse H. Turner, of Henry county, and Mrs. Ann Haseltine Dickinson, of Richmond, were united in marriage. Dr. Turner is a physician with a large practice in Henry county, and a man who carries his most three score and ten years wonderfully well. He is erect, active, and might pass for a man of fifty or fifty-five. The bride is most highly esteemed in this community, and a large circle of friends greatly regret to see her go away. She is five years younger than the groom, but the aggregate age of the couple is one hundred and thirty-one years.

The marriage was a quiet one, but a few friends being present. Among the best present were: Dr. C. M. Drake and wife, Hillins; Miss Mattie L. Cooke and wife, Phillips; Mrs. Stone, Martinsville, Va.; Mrs. Mary Argyle Taylor, Rome, Italy; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson; Mr. Hamilton, Martinsville; Mr. John Lambert and Mr. Williams, Hollins, Va.

A good old fashioned lunch was served at the wedding party. Dr. and Mrs. Turner go to-night via the Norfolk and Visible Cotton Supply.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 6.—Secretary Foster's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton issued to-day shows that total visible is 2,387,122 bales, 4,324,142 last week, 2,337,777 last year. Of this the total American cotton is 2,097,122 against 1,858,742 last week and 2,333,477 last year, and of all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 490,000 against 470,000 last week and 420,000 last year.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton there is an excess and held in Great Britain and Continental Europe 1,330,000 against 1,313,000 last year; in Egypt, 107,000 against 112,000 last year; in India, 158,000 against 155,000 last year and in the United States, 1,000,000 against 1,322,000 last year.

The consular advice alleges that the American navy forces and the railroad company officials have "given some assistance to the revolutionary element in Colombia."
